THE JAKE ATLAS TREASURE HUNT EVENT (60 mins incl. Q&A)

Ideal age group: Yrs 5-8, ages 9 – 13

Straight from the mouth of a best-selling author and Egyptologist, Rob takes children on a fascinating journey: from how he started writing (and how your pupils can too!), to the real life treasure hunt that inspired his new novel.

Rob's fun and interactive presentation includes an encounter with an ancient artifact, take-home facts about tombs and treasure, a video tour of the stunning ancient sites in his new book, as well as a quiz and prizes.

Each class will be given a 'Jake Atlas Adventure Pack', with illustrations, creative writing tips, and puzzles relating to the Ancient World. The best answers will have their school named in the Jack Atlas sequel!

Rob can also give inventive and inspiring creative writing workshops, and school assemblies, if required.

WHAT SOME TEACHERS AND LIBRARIANS HAVE SAID:

Rob's account of what inspired him to become a writer proved hugely popular. (Sarah Henshaw – Paget High School)

Rob was thoroughly entertaining, and engaged the children (plus Teachers and Library staff!) - storytelling at its best. (Sean Edwards – Haringey Libraries)

Rob impressed us enormously with his energy and enthusiasm. The best testimonial comes from the lad who shouted out as Rob was leaving, "Bye, Sir; you were AWESOME!" (Gill Ward, Fortismere School)
